

Puzzle Key

Puzzle No. 2 - June, 2022.

Fee Fi Fo Fun
3

- 37 The second syllable for a giant
- 38 The face of the Mystery Writers of America → check the logo!
- 39 Celebrated Southern writer who invented Yoknapatawpha County
- 42 "Call me ____"
- 43 Extensive Terry Pratchett series set on a flat planet

Down

- 1 The first of two rhyming nouns in a Seuss title
- 2 Repeated, an informal farewell (sometimes extended with "for now")
- 4 Classic piece of literature with an iconic first line [see 42 across]
- 5 What a 13-down may be, if not Petrarchan
- 6 Where the ault is, if not in our stars
- 8 The status of prisons, according to Angela Davis
- 10 What a British character may yelp
- 12 Descriptor for Dickens' Expectations
- 13 A fourteen line poem [See 5 down]
- 15 Denizens of the Doldrums beyond the Tollbooth
- 18 One of Tolkien's third act saviors
- 20 The opposite of 35 across
- 21 What the tide may do
- 23 See 14 across
- 27 Gerund suffix
- 28 Lead-in to many a book title, including 14 across and 1 down
- 30 Hamlet's homeland
- 33 It might be past or present
- 36 Not on
- 38 The counterpart of Prejudice, or the month of June
- 40 Lois who gave us The Giver
- 41 Compass point
- 43 Family member celebrated in June

Across

- 3 One of the three Musketeers
- 7 Titular owner of a moving castle
- * 8 Heavenly body ☾
- 9 Recent memoir from a body positive yoga teacher, or a plow attachment
- 11 What the hero may do at the end of a tragedy
- 12 Mother of nursery rhymes?
- 14 With 23 down, Sylvia Plath's only novel ← The Bell Jar
- 16 A Frenchman's affirmative
- 17 It is human, if the saying is to be trusted To err
- 19 Apparel of many a superhero
- 22 The Doctor whose eyes watch over the Valley of Ashes T. J. Eckleberg → from The Great Gatsby
- 24 Accessory for 1-down
- 25 Workplace for Jekyll or Frankenstein, in short
- 26 Like White's Stuart, but not Orwell's Brother
- 29 How you might feel reading spooky stories in the dark
- 31 It is mightier than the sword
- 32 The true name of Algernon's older brother, importantly ← The Importance of Being Earnest
- 34 There and back ____
- 35 What there were then, for Christie ← And Then There Were None
- 36 The operative word for an option-giver

(NO CAPES!)

